Before the court is plaintiff Joseph Moreno’s (“Moreno”) motion for a Certificate of Appealability. Doc. #116.¹

On May 12, 2011, Moreno filed a civil rights complaint against defendants alleging an Eighth Amendment failure to protect claim. See Doc. #16. Defendants moved for summary judgment on his claim (Doc. #84) which was granted by the court (Doc. #113). In response, Moreno appealed the court’s order. See Doc. #115. Along with his appeal, Moreno filed the present motion for a certificate of appealability. Doc. #116.

The court has reviewed Moreno’s motion and finds that it is without merit. Moreno misconstrues the nature of his complaint. Moreno did not, as he claims in his motion, file a complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. Rather, Moreno initiated a civil rights action under
